

© 1997–2004, Millennium Mathematics Project, University of Cambridge.

Permission is granted to print and copy this page on paper for non–commercial use. For other uses, including electronic redistribution, please contact us.

November 2003

Features

Imaging maths – Unfolding polyhedra

Unfolding a non–convex shape such as this horse model requires an intensive numerical search.

Back to the article

Plus is part of the family of activities in the Millennium Mathematics Project, which also includes the NRICH and MOTIVATE sites.